

Brittany Blakey, Assistant Principal of Upper School - Mrs. Blakey joined the school in 2022. She grew up in Florida and attended the University of Florida, earning her Bachelor's of Arts in History in 2008. She has been teaching for 10 years and taught in both the public and private school settings, at both the middle and high school levels including Civics, both sections of American History, and World Civilizations. After a few years of teaching, She earned my Master's of Science in Educational Leadership Administration from Florida State University and taught college classes. Her husband served in both Afghanistan and Iraq for 14 years. For the latter portion of his career they lived in Northern Virginia and Mrs. Blakey remained home to provide stability for her three children. Becoming a family of Cornerstone Spartans has been one of her greatest joys after moving back to Florida with Benjamin, Samuel, and Olivia.
