

Lee Humphrey played college basketball for the University of Florida, and was a key member of the Florida Gators teams that won back-to-back NCAA national championships in 2006 and 2007. He set both the season and career records at Florida for three-point field goals, making 113 in back-to-back seasons and 288 in his college career. He played professionally in Europe and after retirement received his Master of Business Administration from Florida International University. In the NCAA men's basketball season, Humphrey is an analyst for the radio broadcasts of Florida Gator men's basketball games. As the Director of Basketball at Cornerstone, he will oversee the creation and growth of the school's basketball programs from 4 year olds through high school players. He will offer camps, clinics and leagues for CCA students & community members. Coach Humphrey not only will train champion athletes, he will create an atmosphere of fun and support aiming to help student athletes excel athletically and academically. He is married to his college sweetheart, Chelsea and is a proud father of three sons who attend CCA!
