

Coach Solimar Cestero was born and raised in Toa Baja, Puerto Rico, and started playing volleyball when she was nine years old. She moved to Jacksonville, Florida to pursue a career in Health Science while playing Division 1 volleyball. Throughout her college career at the University of North Florida, she received several ASUN accolades as well as setting UNF NCAA D1 records. Following her five-year college career, she moved on to compete professionally in countries like Hungary, Cyprus, and Puerto Rico. As a long-time member of the Puerto Rican National Team, she expanded her international experience by competing in Pan-American Games, NORCECA tournaments, and Olympic qualifiers in places like Mexico, Japan, Canada, the Dominican Republic, and Costa Rica. Coach Soli brings incredible energy, passion, and experience to our program and will be a game-changer for our student-athletes.
